ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 19th of January 2006)

The dispute brought before the Court relates to entitlement of the petitioner to certain sums of money arising out of a concluded and expired contract. In that view of the matter, the appropriate remedy for the petitioner is to seek relief before the jurisdictional Civil Court for the recovery of the money. The dispute brought before the Court is not a dispute to be entertained under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. In that view of the matter, the writ petition is dismissed, reserving liberty to the petitioner to avail of remedies by way of a suit before the jurisdictional Civil Court. No costs. All contentions raised in the writ petition are left open. No costs.
